

INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION

Publication Series
Volume 2

Broadening the Vision for Teacher Education in the Caribbean

Edited by Rose Davies and Lorna Down

Institute of Education
The University of the West Indies
Mona, Kingston, Jamaica

Contents

Introduction	v
A Rationale for the Critical Reorientation of Jamaican Teacher Education Carol Hordatt Gentles	1
Changing the Education Programme in Teacher Education: The Challenges of Creating Constructivist Classrooms Hyacinth Evans	23
Making Changes: CETT as a Catalyst for Regional Reform of Teacher Education Policies and Practice Errol Miller	44
Examining Teacher Education through the Lens of Sustainability Rosalyn McKeown	63
Rethinking Teacher Induction into the Profession: It's Time to Get It Right Phylicia Marshall	80
The Importance of Practice in Learning to Teach Physical Education: The Case for an Extended Practicum Vilma Charlton	98
Should Reading Be Part of Maths? Views and Practices of Barbadian Secondary Mathematics Teachers Coreen J. Leacock and S. Joel Warrican	117

Violence in Jamaican Schools and the Implications for Teacher Education Ceva McPherson-Kerr, Lorna Down, and Clement Lambert	139
Notes on Contributors	161

NB...Print copies may be obtained by contacting:

Publications Office, Institute of Education,
UWI, Mona Campus, Kingston 7,
Jamaica, West Indies

OR by Email to : caribedpub@gmail.com